

AKAD Youth Mentees, Lenana School

1. Eric Fairweather is a form 4 student in Lenana School where he is the School Captain. He is from Carey Francis house. He with friends have developed 3 innovative solutions; a turbine-less windmill boiler, tech-financial solution for boarding schools and an improved bio-chemical fuel that suits low income earners and large institutions. Eric is also the founder of Diverting The Winds Campaign which has been mentoring youth since 2013.

2. Kelvin Muyundo is a form 4 student in Lenana School. He is the Protestants Captain, in Mitchell House. Kelvin is a founder of Afford Company which solves environmental problems. They have successfully created a mechanical cleaner and presented it at the KSSF Competitions emerging first. Kelvin is a member of Diverting The Winds Campaign and AfriForeKnowledge.

3. Mike Matanga is a form four student in Lenana School. He is the block 4 dining hall captain, in Tom Mboya House. Mike is the top index in the school. He is the founder of AfriForeKnowledge an initiative that brings students in high schools and primary schools together. He is also a founding member of the Orion Youth group that has successfully brought together some of the successful youth in slums in Eastleigh south

4. Reagan Otieno is a form 4 student in Lenana School, Mumia House. Reagan is an upcoming entrepreneur. He has since formulated a polyfabric utility line which he wishes to set up officially after high school. Reagan is a mentor who employs handball in his work at his home village of Seme. This is the first team of its kind in his rural home. He is an environmentalist and poetic artist. Since 2015 he has supported the Greenlight movement at Lenana School by volunteering in their works and doing their written advertisements and articles.

5. Boniface Omina is a form three student in Lenana School, in Ronald Ngala house. He is also the founder of The African Footprint Initiative, an initiative aimed at using art, music, drama and creative expression to address the issues that affect the youth in society. Boniface is a writer of poetry and books, and through the help of MIT graduate engineers at Africa's Talking, is establishing an online platform for students called Student54.

