

No	Student Name	Expectation at beginning of training, Day 1	End: Expectation met at end? Yes/No	Percentage Score
1	Kiilu	To learn some good quality leadership skills, about entrepreneurship, um, how example of successful people, how they made it and how to impact the society to fight against radicalization	Now he knows what radicalization is  YES	98%  There are some people we expected to come... lost 2%
2	Michael Herbert	Does not know what radicalization is, to know it and how to fight it  Know something on self defense  Mentorship on entrepreneurship	Now knows what radicalization is.  Got to understand self-defense; twisting hands, how to persevere when twisting people's hands.  Got mentored on entrepreneurship YES – All met	90%  There are some people expecting to come who did not come.  Lost 20% due to some activities like swimming not done.
3	Njuru Baraka	How to impact the society positively  About His career  Entrepreneurship  Network with others	Had several expectations. Learned a lot about impacting society. Ripple effect of Weche's work should be felt all around. Today he has learned something new. Can apply everything  Career – learned negotiation skills, manage people, be responsible, teamwork,  Entrepreneurship – yesterday was the Zenith, learned about balance sheets, rates in units. Wants to start a Car Park in Thika, dealing with Chase Bank on this (who let us down in this seminar).  Networking – learned a lot, after talking with Maureen, Bbanga, Mercy, Sammy, has learned a lot  YES – A	85%  This is very high for him. Coming from Thika for 3 days, waking up at 4:30pm... therefore this is an A according to him.  One can never fulfill everything. Appreciates the time of Dr. Weche coming. There is a 15% room for improvement.
4	Sammy Mwangi	Leadership and self-defense, knows some part of it  What to do if you find yourself in a compromising situation, like a terrorist attack	Has learned to be a good leader, self-defense, has been added to what he knew before. Knows that to do if he finds himself in a compromising situation. Came late but got the gist of  Expectations have been met, including others he did not expect.  Learned more than he had expected. Even if the other facilitators did not come, have learned from the same topics. Wakes up at 5:30am to come here, and it has been worth it.	Rating of the seminar Did not understand what Akad was about. His expectations were initially limited  98%
5	Mehitabel	How to be a different type of leader, different from what we have right now  How to spread peace in our country and change the face of our country from being a tribalist country to an okay country	She learned how to be a different type of leader. She cannot continue saying she is disappointed with leaders and not do something about it. She has to put the interests of others first. Is a different leader because of this. Learned how to make a bigger pie – gets more... Different right now ensuring everyone is thinking straight in answering questions  Spreading Peace: Learned how to be at peace with people she has never met before. Helps her to know how to spread peace. And be able to go to Turkana and share peace with people at the Coast.. Can	95%  The loss of 5% is because Chase Bank was not here. Yet Dr. Weche was able to teach us the same in his own way
6	Carol Timla	Learn to be a better leader How to handle crisis as a leader Become a better entrepreneur	Yes – learned to be a better leader. Dakitari is a leader. Looking at his story...it motivates her. She wants to be a person like Dakitari. Through his experience, is a good leader and she would love to be one (not being a guest of the state).	98%  Chase Bank is the reason that there was a loss of 2%

			She is now a better leader.          Learned how to handle crisis.          The last story – coping with crisis of picking up the church elder who had been an embarrassment          Yes – will be a better entrepreneur. Still on Daktari. He brought it out. He added onto what others said which meant a lot.          What did she learn from her peers? Her leisure activity of making and selling in school...addressing the issue of being misunderstood...          YES – Expectations met
